

COMMERCIAL & PROMOTIONAL TERMS

Promotional Terms and Conditions

Last Revised: 2026-09-16 v1.0-PRM

0.0 Preamble & Service Scope

IN PLAIN ENGLISH

This policy details all active, ongoing, and historical promotional pricing, coupon codes, and introductory discounts offered by Sheernox. Promotional discounts apply to your initial billing term, renew automatically at standard regular rates, and cannot be stacked unless specifically stated. Each active promotional offer is detailed in its own dedicated section below.

These Promotional Terms and Conditions ("Promotional Terms") constitute an official operational schedule incorporated into and governed by the Master Terms and Conditions of Sheernox Technology Group, a sole proprietorship registered in the Province of British Columbia, Canada (Registration Number: FM0707819, Business Number: 732754924BC0001, Original Registration Date: October 29, 2009), having its registered office at 1-1885 Grasslands Blvd, Kamloops, BC, V2B 0B8, Canada ("Sheernox", "we", "us", or "our").

These Promotional Terms govern any discount, introductory price reduction, promotional coupon code, complimentary domain offering, service credit, or special commercial package made available to clients ("Client", "Customer", "you") through our official website, client portal (my.sheernox.com), marketing campaigns, or direct sales channels. In the event of an express conflict between these Promotional Terms and our general Terms and Conditions of Service regarding promotional pricing and eligibility, these Promotional Terms take precedence with respect to the specific promotional offering.

1.0 Master Promotional Terms & General Rules

The general provisions set forth in this Section 1.0 apply universally to all promotional offerings, discounts, and special pricing published or extended by Sheernox, except where a specific sub-promotion schedule explicitly provides otherwise in writing.

1.1 Non-Stacking & Exclusivity of Discounts

Unless expressly authorized in writing by Sheernox, promotional offers, automated checkout discounts, and promotional voucher codes cannot be combined, stacked, or aggregated with any other promotion, affiliate incentive, volume discount, agency pricing tier, or enterprise contract concession. If an order qualifies for more than one automated or manual promotion, our billing automation will apply only the single promotion yielding the highest nominal savings to the customer.

1.2 Introductory Term Scope & Automatic Renewal Disclosures

All promotional pricing, percentage discounts, and introductory credits apply strictly and exclusively to the initial contracted billing cycle or promotional period specified in the service order (e.g., the first month of a monthly plan or the first year of an annual plan).

Automatic Renewal at Standard Prevailing Rates: Upon the expiration of the initial promotional billing cycle, all contracted services automatically renew at Sheernox's standard, non-promotional recurring rate in effect at the time of renewal. All figures are billed in Canadian Dollars (CAD) and are subject to applicable federal Goods and Services Tax (GST, 5%) and British Columbia Provincial Sales Tax (PST, 7%). Clients may cancel automatic renewal at any time prior to the scheduled invoice date through the client management portal at my.sheernox.com in accordance with Section 4.0 of our Master Terms.

1.3 Plan Modifications, Upgrades, Downgrades & Forfeiture

Promotional rates are calculated based on the specific hosting plan, resource tier, and billing cycle selected at the time of initial checkout. If a client upgrades, downgrades, modifies billing cadences (e.g., switching from annual to monthly), or transfers the service to another user account mid-cycle during a promotional period:

- Immediate Forfeiture: The remaining balance of any promotional discount or credit is immediately and irrevocably forfeited.
- Standard Rate Recalculation: Billed charges for the modified service are recalculated based on Sheernox's standard prevailing non-promotional recurring rate, pro-rated for the remaining duration of the billing cycle.
- No Cash Value: Forfeited promotional credits or discounts possess zero cash surrender value and cannot be refunded, transferred, or credited to subsequent invoices.

1.4 Account Integrity, Multiple Orders & Anti-Fraud Controls

Sheernox maintains a zero-tolerance policy against fraudulent activities and manipulation designed to circumvent promotional rules. Unless a specific promotion explicitly states a per-customer limit, clients in good standing may place multiple eligible orders during an open promotional window.

However, the creation of fictitious, duplicate, or secondary accounts by the same individual or entity, using temporary email providers, falsifying registrant details, or coordinating abusive purchasing rings constitutes a material breach of our Acceptable Use Policy. Sheernox reserves the unilateral right to audit transactions, void fraudulent orders, cancel active services without notice, and retroactively invoice the account for full standard non-promotional service fees.

1.5 Cancellation & Money-Back Guarantee Interplay

Where a promotional hosting service is subject to Sheernox's standard 30-day money-back guarantee pursuant to our Master Terms:

- Net Amount Paid: Any approved refund shall be strictly limited to the actual net discounted amount paid by the customer for the affected hosting service.
- Non-Refundable Items: Third-party licensing fees, dedicated IP addresses, custom software setup charges, domain name registrations, and domain transfer fees are strictly non-refundable and will be deducted from any refund amount as detailed in Section 3.0.

1.6 Discontinuation, Amendment & Modification Rights

Sheernox reserves the right to terminate, amend, withdraw, or modify any promotional offering, discount tier, or promotional schedule at any time. Any amendment or termination shall take effect immediately upon publication on this page, but will not affect subscriptions already purchased and paid for prior to the amendment for the duration of that paid initial billing cycle.
